

Checklist for revised submissions

Your revised manuscript will be subject to a quality check before it is returned to the Editorial Board Member (EBM) for assessment. This is to ensure that all of the information required by the EBM and peer-reviewers is available, and, should your manuscript be accepted, it can be published as quickly as possible.

Please review the checklist before resubmitting, as manuscripts that do not comply may be returned for changes before they are passed to the EBM. Please note that files are not carried over between versions. Additionally, please ensure that all author information entered both in your manuscript and on our system is accurate.

Should you have any questions regarding this checklist, please contact us at scirep.admin@nature.com

Submission Files
Item	Permissible file format	Notes	Completed

Equations are numbered and included in an editable format	<input type="checkbox"/>
No footnotes	<input type="checkbox"/>
Tracked changes must not be used in the main Article File. If you wish to highlight any changes made in your Article File, please do so with the highlighter tool or by changing the colour of the font. Please do not highlight changes in the text by italicising, underlining, using strikethrough or making the font bold. You may upload a version containing tracked changes as a 'Related Manuscript' file, as long as a clean version of the main Article File is also provided	<input type="checkbox"/>
METHODS
Included in main Article File and contain sufficient detail to repeat experiments	<input type="checkbox"/>
For experiments involving live vertebrates and/or higher invertebrates , the Methods section must include a statement that both: (i) identifies the institutional and/or licensing committee that approved the experiments, including any relevant details; and (ii) confirms that all experiments were performed in accordance with relevant named guidelines and regulations	<input type="checkbox"/>
For experiments involving human subjects (or tissue samples) the Methods section must include a statement that: (i) identifies the institutional and/or licensing committee that approved the experiments, including any relevant details; (ii) confirms that all experiments were performed in accordance with relevant named guidelines and regulations; and (iii) confirms that informed consent was obtained from all participants and/or their legal guardians	<input type="checkbox"/>
Please note that: (i) study participant names (and other personally identifiable information) must be removed from all text/figures/tables/images; (ii) the use of coloured bars/shapes or blurring to obscure the eyes/facial region of study participants is not an acceptable means of anonymisation. For manuscripts that include information or images that could lead to identification of a study participant, the Methods section must include a statement that confirms informed consent was obtained to publish the information/image(s) in an online open-access publication.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Scientific Reports will not consider manuscripts describing research that involves organs/tissues procured from prisoners. Authors of manuscripts describing human transplantation research must include a statement in their manuscript attesting that no organs/tissues were procured from prisoners. Authors must also name all institution(s)/clinic(s)/department(s) via which organs/tissues were procured	<input type="checkbox"/>
AUTHOR CONTRIBUTIONS STATEMENT
Author contributions statement , specifying the individual contribution of each author, is provided. This should be included after the references, and every author's contribution must be listed	<input type="checkbox"/>
ADDITIONAL INFORMATION
Competing interests statement is provided in the Article File under the heading "Additional Information", and matches the information entered on the submission system. Competing financial and non-financial interests should be disclosed	<input type="checkbox"/>
LEGENDS
A legend is provided for each main table and main figure in the Article file. These should be placed at the end of the manuscript, after the references	<input type="checkbox"/>
Only legends for main display items should be included in the Article File; legends for supplementary figures and tables should be included in the Supplementary Information file	<input type="checkbox"/>
REFERENCES
In a numbered list and all in-line citations should be matched back to a reference via numbering within square brackets	<input type="checkbox"/>
Each number refers only to one paper/citation	<input type="checkbox"/>
Only papers that have been published or accepted by a named publication or recognised preprint server should be in the numbered list, preprints of accepted papers should be submitted as a 'Related Manuscript' file	<input type="checkbox"/>
No notes are included in the list	<input type="checkbox"/>
DOI should be used, not PII	<input type="checkbox"/>
Please use the following reference format for printed journals: Schott, D. H., Collins, R. N. & Bretscher, A. Secretory vesicle transport velocity in living cells depends on the myosin V lever arm length. J. Cell Biol. 156, 35–39 (2002).	<input type="checkbox"/>
Please use the following reference format for online-only journals: Bellin, D. L. et al. Electrochemical camera chip for simultaneous imaging of multiple metabolites in biofilms. Nat. Commun. 7, 10535; 10.1038/ncomms10535 (2016).	<input type="checkbox"/>
Website references should include a date (year) of access; for example, Smith, J. A study of gills. www.fishgills.com (2013).	<input type="checkbox"/>

Please use the following reference format for books: Author surname, Author initial. Chapter Title, edition. [Editor surname, Editor initial. (ed.)] Title of book. Chapter number, page range. (Publisher, year of publication). The chapter title, edition, and editor(s) should only be included if appropriate	<input type="checkbox"/>
Software references can be included in the reference list; for example, R Core Team (2013). R: A language and environment for statistical computing. R Foundation for Statistical Computing, Vienna, Austria. URL http://www.R-project.org/	<input type="checkbox"/>
Published patents can be included in the format; "Myers K, Nguyen C, inventors; 3F Therapeutics, Inc., assignee. Prosthetic heart valve. United States patent US 6,911,043. 2005 Jun 28."	<input type="checkbox"/>
PhD theses can be included in the format; "Author name, Title, PhD thesis, University (Date)".	<input type="checkbox"/>
For conferences referenced, please include "Author of Paper, Title of paper. Paper presented at Title of Conference: Subtitle of Conference, Location. Place of publication: Publisher. (Or DOI, if available)(Year, Month date)"	<input type="checkbox"/>
BibTeX (.bib) bibliography files cannot be accepted. LaTeX submissions must either contain all references within the manuscript .tex file itself, or (for authors using the Overleaf template) can include the .bbl file generated during the compilation process as a LaTeX supplementary file	<input type="checkbox"/>

Display Items
MAIN FIGURES
Schemes, graphical abstracts and boxes are not permitted and must be labelled/numbered as either a figure or table as appropriate. As an online journal we are unable to accept any 'Cover' images or table of contents figures	<input type="checkbox"/>
Please ensure you have read our digital image integrity and standards policy	<input type="checkbox"/>
Mentioned at least once in the main text in the order in which they are numbered	<input type="checkbox"/>
Each complete figure is uploaded as a separate file (i.e. one figure file for Fig 1, one file for Fig 2, etc.) consisting of a single page. Multi-part/panel figures must be prepared and arranged as a single figure file (including all sub-parts; a, b, c, etc.). Please do not upload each panel individually	<input type="checkbox"/>
No labels (e.g. 'Figure 1') or legends are included in figure image files. However, for multi-panel figures, labels for panels of the figure such as '(a)' or '(b)' are encouraged	<input type="checkbox"/>
Authors are responsible for ensuring that they have permission to re-use previously-published content under a CC-BY open access license	<input type="checkbox"/>
Gel and blot images are presented in compliance with our digital image and integrity polices . Where cropped gels/blots are displayed, this should be noted in the figure legend; full-length/uncropped gels and blots should be included in a Supplementary Information file	<input type="checkbox"/>
Photographs/drawings: if these were created by a contributing author please state so. Otherwise, provide proof of permission for re-use and cite appropriately	<input type="checkbox"/>
Recognisable people: written permission to publish must be provided from any recognisable person appearing in a figure or video. If the person is a study participant we do not need to be provided with the written permission, but a statement must be included in the Methods section to confirm that informed consent was obtained for the open-access publication of identifying information and images. For images involving study participants, please see guidance in Methods section of checklist	<input type="checkbox"/>
MAIN TABLES
Main tables are provided in the Article File, and not as separate files, in an editable format (not embedded as an image in the document)	<input type="checkbox"/>
Main tables are numbered using whole numbers, not letters, and must not have separate parts	<input type="checkbox"/>
Main Tables should not contain colour-shaded cells or images and should not be over 5 pages long.	<input type="checkbox"/>

Supplementary Information
Multiple pieces of supplementary information can be combined and supplied as a single file, or supplied separately (e.g. supplementary videos, spreadsheets [.csv or .xlsx] or data files)	<input type="checkbox"/>
Supplementary material is uploaded separately, and not included in the Article File. Supplementary legends must only be provided in the Supplementary Information file	<input type="checkbox"/>
Supplementary files are labelled with the full article title and full author list	<input type="checkbox"/>
Please note that Supplementary Information will be published as provided, without modification or typesetting; therefore, please do not use highlighting in the Supplementary Information. If you wish to indicate changes made, please upload a separate version as a 'Related Manuscript' file, labelled 'SI with changes marked'	<input type="checkbox"/>
